FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Mary C. Mulrean, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner desires to employ the beneficiary as a nanny for a period of one year. The petition was not accompanied by the required Labor Certification, ETA-750. The director denied the petition because the petitioner had not submitted the required certification or the Department of Labor's notice that such certification cannot be made. The director also denied the petition because the petitioner had not established that the services or labor to be performed are temporary.

On appeal, counsel states that the Department of Labor indicated an approved Form 750A was forthcoming.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

The petition was filed on July 5, 2000 without a temporary labor certification, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. Absent such certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made, the petition cannot be approved.

Further, the Application for Alien Employment Certification, Form ETA-750, indicates that the proposed duties are providing primary care for the petitioner's infant twins, preparing all meals, keeping their clothes and toys clean and in order and supervising their activities during the day. The petitioner states that he and his spouse are scientists and have consistently demanding schedules which require the assistance of another adult to raise their children. The petitioner has not established that the need for the services to be performed is temporary.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. Here, the petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
