FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary as a concrete laborer for an unspecified period of time. The director denied the petition because it was not initially accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

On appeal, the petitioner argues that the Service misinformed him as to the requirements regarding temporary labor certification.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iii)(A), prior to filing a petition with the director to classify an alien as an H-2B worker, the petitioner shall apply for temporary labor certification with the Department of Labor. 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iii)(C) states that the petitioner may not file an H-2B petition unless the petitioner has applied for a temporary labor certification and has obtained a labor certification determination.

Inasmuch as the petition was filed on November 28, 2000 and the labor certification was issued on March 3, 2001, it is concluded that the petition may not be approved.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the decision of the director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
