FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The decision of the director will be withdrawn and the matter remanded to him for further action and consideration.

The petitioner is a plumbing, heating, and air conditioning firm which seeks to employ the beneficiary as a service technician and installer for a period of one year. The director denied the petition because he determined that the petitioner had not demonstrated that its need for the occupation is temporary.

On appeal, counsel argues that the petitioner has complied with pertinent regulations.

The substantive issues of this proceeding will not be discussed at this time. The matter will be remanded to the director for him to review the record and consider the reasons given by the certifying officer for denial of the temporary labor certification.

ORDER: The decision of the director is withdrawn. The matter is remanded to him for further action and consideration consistent with the above discussion and entry of a new decision which, if adverse to the petitioner, is to be certified to the Associate Commissioner for review.
