INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner for examinations for review. The director's decision will be affirmed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiaries as golf course maintenance workers for a period of ten months. The director denied the petition because it was not accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor. The certifying officer declined to issue a labor certification because the petitioner had not established that its need for the beneficiaries' services was temporary and because the recruiting practices of the petitioner appeared questionable.

The petitioner has not submitted a brief or evidence in response to the notice of certification.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) states that a petition not accompanied by temporary labor certification must be accompanied by countervailing evidence from the petitioner that addresses the reasons why the Secretary of Labor could not grant a labor certification.

The certifying officer found that the petitioner had not established a temporary need for the beneficiaries' services. The officer noted that the proposed seven-day work week was not acceptable. In addition, the certifying officer stated:

Correspondence from the agent indicates that it is actively involved in meeting with and interviewing potential applicants for the above employer's job opportunities which is not an acceptable role for an agent in processing applications for foreign labor certification.

The petitioner has not provided sufficient countervailing evidence in support of its assertion that its need for the services of the beneficiaries is temporary or that United States workers are not available.

Matter of Artee Corporation, 18 I&N Dec. 366 (Comm. 1982), specified that the test for determining whether an alien is coming "temporarily" to the United States to "perform temporary services or labor" is whether the need for the duties to be performed is temporary. It is the nature of the need, not the nature of the duties that is controlling. The petitioner has not established that its need for golf course maintenance workers is temporary. The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the decision of the director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The director's decision is affirmed. The petition is denied.
