FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert F. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary as an electrician for an unspecified period. The director denied the petition because it was not accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

On appeal, the petitioner has still not provided temporary labor certification.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

The petitioner has now provided the labor certification form. However, that form has not been endorsed by the Department of Labor. Inasmuch as the petitioner has not provided either temporary labor certification or notice that such certification cannot be made, it is concluded that the petition may not be approved.

The Service notes its authority to affirm decisions which, though based on incorrect grounds, are deemed to be correct decisions on other grounds within its power to formulate. Helvering v. Gowran, 302 U.S. 238 (1937); Securities Comm'n v. Chenery Corp., 318 U.S. 86 (1943); and Chae-Sik Lee v. Kennedy, 294 F. 2d 231 (D.C. Cir. 1961), cert. denied 368 U.S. 926.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the decision of the director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
