FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a restaurant. The petition indicates that the petitioner desires to employ the beneficiary as a dishwasher for an indefinite time period. The petition was not accompanied by the required Labor Certification, ETA-750. The director denied the petition because the petitioner had not submitted the required certification or the Department of Labor's notice that such certification cannot be made.

On appeal, the petitioner states that an appeal was filed so that he may resubmit the petition with the appropriate documentation, such as the labor certification or notice.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

The petition was filed on October 1, 2001 without a temporary labor certification, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. Absent such certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made, the petition cannot be approved.

This petition may not be approved for another reason beyond the decision of the director. The petitioner states in his letter that the dates of intended employment are "from now until the end of October 2002." The petition does not state the dates of the intended employment. An uncertified copy of Form ETA-750 shows the duties to be of an ongoing nature. The petitioner has not established that the need for the services to be performed is occasional or an intermittent need as stated on the petition. The petitioner has not established that the need for the beneficiary's services as a dishwasher is temporary.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. Here, the petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
