Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a warehousing, distribution and transportation company. It desires to extend its authorization to employ the beneficiary as a computer systems analyst for one year. The petition was not accompanied by the required labor certification, Form ETA-750. The director denied the petition because the petitioner had not submitted the required certification or the Department of Labor's notice that such certification cannot be made.

On appeal, the petitioner requests that the Bureau allow an extension until the labor certification can be completed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

The petition was filed on February 4, 2002 without a temporary labor certification, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. Absent such certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made, the petition cannot be approved.

The petitioner requested on appeal that an extension be allowed until the labor certification could be completed. However, neither the statute nor the regulations allows for an extension of time to complete a certification during this proceeding.

This petition may not be approved for another reason beyond the decision of the director. The petitioner has not established that the need for the services to be performed is seasonal, peakload, intermittent or a one-time occurrence and for only a temporary period.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, the petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
