IN RE: Petitioner: [Redacted]
Beneficiaries: [Redacted]

PETITION: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The director's decision will be withdrawn although the petition is now moot.

The petitioner engages in the business of freight transportation. It desires to employ the beneficiaries as tractor-trailer truck drivers for three months. The director determined that the regulations did not allow the substitution of one beneficiary for another.

On appeal, the petitioner's representative states that the petitioner was approved for 36 H-2B visas in November 2003. The petitioner's representative also states that the petitioner was unable to locate workers outside the United States. The petitioner's representative requests that the petition be considered for only two workers, as the request for the other workers is withdrawn.

The record contains a copy of the Notice of Action, Form I-797, showing the petitioner had been approved for 35 H-2B workers from November 19, 2003 until April 15, 2004. In a letter dated January 25, 2004, the petitioner requested the substitution of two of the previously approved workers, whose visas had not been issued, with the beneficiaries named in this petition. The beneficiaries named in this petition are currently in the United States, in H-2B status, working for another employer.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(2)(i) states in pertinent part:

(D) Change of employers. If the alien is in the United States and seeks to change employers, the prospective new employer must file a petition on Form I-129 requesting classification and extension of the alien's stay in the United States. If the new petition is approved, the extension of stay may be granted for the validity of the approved petition. . . .

The petitioner's representative indicates on appeal, that the petitioner desires to employ Ronald White and Jason Ferguson. The regulations do allow for a change of employers if the beneficiaries are maintaining their previously authorized nonimmigrant status in the United States. The petitioner followed the proper procedure and filed Form I-129 to request H-2B classification and extension of the beneficiaries' stay in the United States on January 30, 2004. However, the petition indicates that the beneficiaries' stay expired on January 20, 2004, and November 30, 2003, respectively. The petitioner has not established that the beneficiaries were granted an extension of their previously approved status prior to the filing of the petition.

Further, the regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(2)(i) states in pertinent part:

(E) Amended or new petition. . . . An amended or new H-1C, H-1B, H-2A, or H-2B petition must be accompanied by a current or new Department of Labor (DOL) determination. . . .

The Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, Form I-129, was filed on January 30, 2004 without the current DOL determination. To remand this case to the director for the aforementioned issues would have no practical effect because the period of requested employment (January 25, 2004 until April 15, 2004) has passed. Therefore, the petition is denied.

ORDER: The petition is denied because the matter is moot due to the passage of time.
