IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiaries:

PETITION: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was approved by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and certified to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) for review as required by 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(9)(iii)(B)(2)(ii). The decision of the director will be affirmed and the petition will be approved.

The petitioner corporation is a staffing service that seeks to continue to employ the beneficiaries as helpers-production workers pursuant to an extension of the contract for their services at a shipyard in Orange Texas. The contract was the basis of the previously approved H-2B petition. Accordingly, the petitioner filed the present petition to continue the beneficiaries' H-2B classification and extend their stay for the period July 31, 2007 to May 31, 2008.

The Department of Labor determined that unique, complex, and persistent circumstances generated in the Gulf Region by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita made it impossible to determine whether a temporary labor certification should be issued in the present case.

The director determined that sufficient countervailing evidence has been submitted to show that qualified persons in the United States are not available, that the employment policies of the Department of Labor have been observed, and that the need for the services to be performed is temporary.

The AAO finds that the director's decision is correct. The totality of evidence establishes a one-time occurrence as defined in the H-2B regulations and extraordinary circumstances that justify this extension of the beneficiaries' H-2B employment in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(6)(ii)(B). The Vermont Service Center will issue the appropriate approval notice.

ORDER: The decision of the director is affirmed. The nonimmigrant visa petition is approved.
