FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

for Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and the matter is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be sustained.

The petitioner is a citizen of the United States who seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of Laos, as the fiance(e) of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(K).

The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to submit a completed and signed Form G-325A for the beneficiary.

Section 214(d) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(d) states in pertinent part that a fiancée petition:

shall be approved only after satisfactory evidence is submitted by the petitioner to establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the petition, have a bonafide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of ninety days after the alien's arrival...

The Petition for Alien Fiance(e) (Form I-129F) was filed with the Service on April 18, 2000. At the time of filing, the petitioner failed to submit satisfactory evidence that he and the beneficiary had met within two years before the date of filing the petition, as well as a completed Form G-325A signed by the beneficiary. Accordingly, on May 17, 2000, the director requested that the petitioner submit the aforementioned documents. On June 28, 2000, the petitioner submitted evidence of his meeting the beneficiary; however, he failed to submit a completed and signed Form G-325A for the beneficiary. Therefore, the director denied the petition on this basis.

On appeal, the petitioner submits a completed Form G-325A signed by the beneficiary and evidence that the beneficiary does not have a criminal record in the country of Laos. Accordingly, the petitioner has overcome the basis of the director's objections.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained. The petition is approved.
