Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a citizen of the United States who seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of Morocco, as the fiance(e) of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K).

Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act defines "fiance(e)" as:

An alien who is the fiancée or fiancé of a citizen of the United States and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with the petitioner within ninety days after entry. . . .

Section 214(d) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1184(d), states in pertinent part that a fiance(e) petition:

shall be approved only after satisfactory evidence is submitted by the petitioner to establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the petition, have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of ninety days after the alien's arrival.

It was held in Matter of Souza, 14 I&N Dec. 1 (Reg. Comm. 1972) that both the petitioner and beneficiary must be unmarried and free to conclude a valid marriage at the time the petition is filed. The petitioner filed the Petition for Alien Fiance(e) (Form I-129F) with the Service on February 22, 2002.

The director denied the petition after determining that the petitioner had failed to submit documentary evidence that she was legally free to marry the beneficiary at the time the petition was filed. Specifically, the petitioner had failed to submit a proper death certificate for her prior spouse, [REDACTED] whom she had married on December 22, 1999.

On appeal, counsel requests an additional 120 days in which to submit a brief and or evidence concerning the death of the petitioner's prior spouse. Since more than nine months have passed and no additional documentation has been received, a decision will be rendered on the record as it is presently constituted.

The petitioner has failed to establish that, as of the date of filing the petition, she is legally free to marry to beneficiary. Therefore, the appeal will be dismissed.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R 214.2(k)(2), the denial of this petition is without prejudice. Once the petitioner obtains the documentation required in support of a Form I-129F petition, she may file a new petition on the beneficiary's behalf in accordance with the statutory requirements.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
