Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a native of Iran and naturalized citizen of the United States. The beneficiary is a native and citizen of Iran. The director reviewed the documentation and concluded that the petitioner had failed to submit documentation regarding: 1) the circumstances of the meeting to establish the relationship between the petitioner and the beneficiary; 2) evidence of the meeting of the petitioner and the beneficiary within two years of the March 12, 2002, filing date of the petition; 3) verification of status as a United States citizen; 4) ADIT style photograph for the petitioner; and 5) completed and signed Form G-325A for the petitioner.

The director then denied the petition after determining that the petitioner had not complied with the regulatory requirements.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13), if all requested initial evidence is not submitted by the required date, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned and, accordingly, shall be denied. A denial due to abandonment may not be appealed, but an applicant or petitioner may file a motion to reopen under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5.

There is no appeal of the director's decision in the present matter. If the petitioner has additional evidence for the record, such documentation should be forwarded on a motion to reopen to the office having jurisdiction over the present application (the office which rendered the initial decision). Since there is no appeal of the decision in the present matter, the appeal will be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
