Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a naturalized citizen of the United States who seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of Ghana, as the fiancée of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K).

Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act defines "fiancé(e)" as:

An alien who is the fiancée or fiancé of a citizen of the United States and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with the petitioner within ninety days after entry.

Section 214(d) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1184(d), states, in pertinent part, that a fiancé(e) petition:

. . . shall be approved only after satisfactory evidence is submitted by the petitioner to establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the petition, have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of ninety days after the alien's arrival

It was held in Matter of Souza, 14 I&N Dec. 1 (Reg. Comm. 1972) that both the petitioner and beneficiary must be unmarried and free to conclude a valid marriage at the time the petition is filed. The record indicates that the petition was filed on September 21, 2002.

The director denied the petition after determining that the petitioner had failed to submit documentary evidence of the legal termination of all of his prior marriages, and a Form G-325A, Biographic Information sheet, for the beneficiary.

On appeal, the petitioner submits the required Form G-325A for the beneficiary and indicates that he is in the process of obtaining evidence of his divorce from his first spouse.¹

In the instant case, the petitioner has failed to establish that, as of the date of filing the petition, all of his prior marriages had been legally terminated. Therefore, the appeal will be dismissed.

¹ It is noted that the petitioner's first spouse was the beneficiary. The couple married from January 10, 1966 through December 2, 1984. The petitioner was then married to a second spouse from June 7, 1986 until her death on August 31, 1997.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R § 214.2(k)(2), the denial of this petition is without prejudice. Once the petitioner has obtained evidence of the termination of his first marriage, he may file a new petition on the beneficiary's behalf in accordance with the statutory requirements.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
