Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of Laos, as the fiancée of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K).

The director denied the petition after determining that the petitioner is a lawful permanent resident alien, not a citizen, of the United States.

Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act defines "fiancé(e)" as:

An alien who is the fiancée or fiancé of a citizen of the United States and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with the petitioner within ninety days after entry. . . .

On appeal, the petitioner states that his application for naturalization as a citizen of the United States is "in process," and that he has an interview scheduled in connection with that application on April 7, 2003.

The record reflects that at the time of filing the petition, the petitioner was a lawful permanent resident of the United States. There are no provisions of law for a lawful permanent resident to file a petition on behalf of an alien fiancé(e). Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

Once the petitioner is naturalized as a citizen of the United States, he may file a new petition on behalf of the beneficiary in accordance with the statutory requirements.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
