IN RE: Petitioner: [REDACTED]
Beneficiary: [REDACTED]

PETITION: Petition for Alien Fiancé(e) Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be sustained and the application will be approved.

The petitioner is a naturalized citizen of the United States who seeks to classify the beneficiary, a native and citizen of Ecuador, as the fiancée of a United States citizen pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K).

The director denied the petition after determining that the petitioner had not submitted credible documentary evidence to establish the fiancée relationship within the meaning of section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act. See Decision of the Director, dated January 7, 2003.

Section 101(a)(15)(K) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K), provides nonimmigrant classification to an alien who:

- (i) is the fiancé(e) of a U.S. citizen and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with that citizen within 90 days after admission;
- (ii) has concluded a valid marriage with a citizen of the United States who is the petitioner, is the beneficiary of a petition to accord a status under section 201(b)(2)(A)(i) that was filed under section 204 by the petitioner, and seeks to enter the United States to await the approval of such petition and the availability to the alien of an immigrant visa; or
- (iii) is the minor child of an alien described in clause (i) or (ii) and is accompanying, or following to join, the alien.

Further, the Code of Federal Regulations provides, in part:

Every application, petition, or other document submitted on a form ... shall be executed and filed in accordance with the instructions contained on the form, such instructions being hereby incorporated into the particular section of the regulations requiring its submission ... Each application or petition must be accompanied by the documents required by the particular section of the regulations under which submitted.

8 CFR § 103.2.

The petitioner submitted an unsigned Form G-325A for the beneficiary with the Petition for Alien Fiancé(e) (Form I-129F). In response to the director's request for a completed Form G-325A for the beneficiary, the petitioner again submitted an unsigned Form G-325A for the beneficiary.

On appeal, the petitioner states that the beneficiary is not in the United States and at the current time, remains in Ecuador. Form I-290B, undated.

The record on appeal contains a complete, signed Form G-325A for the beneficiary. Therefore, the appeal will be sustained.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained and the application is approved.
