FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
for Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner, a company that specializes in computer information and systems, seeks authorization to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as chief executive officer of its new office. The director determined that the petitioner had not demonstrated that the beneficiary had been or would be employed in a primarily managerial or executive capacity, or that the U.S. entity is doing business. The director also noted that the beneficiary's B-2 visitor status expired before the instant petition was filed, and that the beneficiary violated his B-2 visitor status by performing skilled or unskilled work without authorization from the Service.

On appeal, counsel states that the director's decision was erroneous, and that she is submitting a separate brief and/or additional evidence on or before September 29, 2000. To date, no brief or additional evidence has been received. As no additional information has been provided in support of the appeal, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On appeal, counsel expresses disagreement with the decision of the director, but fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. As the petitioner has provided no additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
