Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner markets industrial valves, gauges and food. It seeks to extend its authorization to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as its general manager. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had been or would be employed in the United States in a primarily managerial or executive capacity.

On appeal, counsel indicates that a brief and/or additional evidence to overcome the grounds for denial would be forthcoming. To date, no additional documentary evidence has been submitted. As no additional information has been provided in support of the appeal, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On appeal, counsel fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Counsel expresses disagreement with the decision of the director, but fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. As counsel has provided no additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
