Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner, an international management consultant, who does business as a sole proprietorship, seeks to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States in a specialized knowledge capacity, namely as its computer operator systems analyst. The director determined that the petitioner had failed to establish that it is doing business either in the United States or abroad as defined by 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(1)(1)(ii)(H). Consequently, the director denied the petition.

On appeal, the petitioner indicated that he would submit a brief or evidence to the AAO within 90 days. The notice of appeal is dated January 24, 2002. To date, the AAO has received nothing further.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
