DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a wholesaler and distributor of bags and luggage. It seeks to continue to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as its president. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary would be employed in the United States in a managerial or executive capacity.

On appeal, counsel states that the company has shown viability and growth, that it employs 7 persons, has a gross income of $800,000 and is projected to reach 1 million dollars by next year.

The petitioner had indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted in support of the appeal on or before December 26, 2001. To date, no brief or additional evidence has been received.

As no additional information has been provided in support of the appeal, the record must be considered complete.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) state in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
