Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner claims to be a subsidiary of [REDACTED] Inc., located in Canada. The petitioner claims to be in the business of developing and selling medical information management technology. The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as its installation coordinator. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had been or will be employed in a specialized knowledge capacity, and consequently denied the petition.

On appeal, the petitioner indicated that it would submit a brief or evidence to the AAO within 15 days. The notice of appeal is dated January 3, 2001. To date, the AAO has received no additional evidence. The evidence is, therefore, considered complete.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
