Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7) provides that an application or petition will be considered properly filed if it is signed and executed and the proper filing fee is attached. The regulation further indicates that an application or petition which is not properly signed or is submitted with the wrong filing fee will be rejected as improperly filed.

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on March 26, 2003. The appeal was received by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) on April 21, 2003, but was rejected as improperly filed as Form I-290B was not properly signed by counsel. CIS received the instant appeal on May 1, 2003 or 36 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the service center director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
