DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner claims to be in the business of supplying semiconductor process monitoring equipment. The petitioner claims to be a subsidiary of GeMe Tec, located in Munich, Germany. The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States in a managerial or executive capacity, namely as its president. The director determined that the petitioner failed to provide evidence to establish that sufficient physical premises had been acquired to house the new office.

On appeal, counsel indicated that he would submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within 30 days. The notice of appeal is dated April 22, 2003. To date, the AAO has not received any additional evidence. Therefore, the record is considered complete.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As counsel has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
