ON RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary

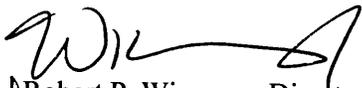

[Redacted]

PETITION: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(L) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(L)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

[Redacted]

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner provides medical billing services and seeks to continue to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as its president and treasurer. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary would be employed in a managerial or executive capacity.

On appeal, counsel states that some facts presented were misrepresented in the director's decision.

On October 14, 2002, counsel indicated that sixty days were needed to submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAO. To date, no brief or additional evidence has been received.

As no additional information has been provided in support of the appeal, the record must be considered complete.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) state in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. That burden has not been met.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
