FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is an agent for an entertainment organization. He filed a Form I-129 (Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker) seeking classification of an unidentified seventeen-member chamber music group under section 101(a)(15)(P)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act). The petitioner seeks classification of the beneficiary company to be employed temporarily in the United States for a single performance during a period of approximately one week.

On appeal, the petitioner stated that the performance is scheduled at Carnegie Hall and that this is "already a proof of the group high artistic level." The petitioner also stated that the group is an internationally known Russian state ensemble and that he is only requesting a visa for five to seven days. The petitioner also indicated on the petition form that a brief and/or evidence would be submitted to the Service within thirty-days. The Service, however, received no additional documentation from the petitioner.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Despite the petitioner's attempt at an explanation and his unsupported assertions regarding the beneficiary musical group, he failed to specifically address the documentary deficiencies cited by the center director as the basis for denial of the petition. Inasmuch as the petitioner has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
