INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 CFR 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 CFR 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Elizabeth Hayward

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The case will be remanded for further consideration.

8 CFR 103.3(a)(2)(i) states that denials of petitions must be appealed within 30 days after the service of the notice of denial. The director denied the petition on April 2, 2001. The director's notice advised the petitioner of the 30-day deadline (with an additional three-day allowance for service by mail). On the I-290B appeal form itself, however, a rubber-stamped notation erroneously indicated that an appeal would be considered timely if filed prior to June 2, 2001. The appeal was filed on May 29, 2001, 59 days after the decision was rendered. While this date did fall prior to June 2, 2001, the appeal nevertheless was not timely filed according to the pertinent regulations. The director's error does not supersede those regulations.

8 CFR 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen as described in 8 CFR 103.5(a)(2), or the requirements of a motion to reconsider as described in 8 CFR 103.5(a)(3), the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. 8 CFR 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding; and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Review of the record indicates that the appeal meets this requirement; the petitioner submits new evidence for consideration.

According to 8 CFR 103.5(a)(1)(ii), jurisdiction over a motion resides in the official who made the latest decision in the proceeding. Because, in this case, the disputed decision was rendered by the director, the Administrative Appeals Office has no jurisdiction over this motion and the matter must be remanded to the director for a decision pursuant to the regulations governing motions to reopen.

ORDER: The petition is remanded to the director for further action in accordance with the foregoing. In the event that a new decision is rendered which is adverse to the petitioner, the decision is to be certified to the Associate Commissioner for Examinations for review.
