Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner in this matter is a boxing manager and attorney. The beneficiary is a professional boxer. The beneficiary is a native of the Philippines. He was last admitted to the United States on July 23, 2001 in B-1 classification valid through October 22, 2001.

The petitioner filed a Form I-129 (Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker) seeking classification of the beneficiary under section 101(a)(15)(P)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), as a professional boxer. The petitioner seeks to act as the beneficiary's agent and his attorney.

The director denied the petition, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary would be a participant in any specific athletic competition or event or that the beneficiary has any definite employment planned for the period requested.

On appeal, counsel for the petitioner argued that the decision was erroneous and indicated that a brief would be submitted within thirty days, on or before September 24, 2002. As of this date, no brief has been received.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
