Office: HARLINGEN, TEXAS Date:

IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Certificate of Citizenship under section 301 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1401.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Harlingen, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant was born on November 21, 1992, in Mexico. The N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship states that the applicant's mother [REDACTED] was born in Texas and that she is a U.S. citizen. The applicant's father, [REDACTED] was born in Mexico and is not a U.S. citizen. The applicant's parents married in Texas on October 24, 1990. The applicant presently seeks a certificate of citizenship pursuant to section 301(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1401(g), based on the claim that she derived U.S. citizenship through her mother.

The district director found the applicant had failed to provide evidence to establish that her mother was a U.S. citizen or to establish that her mother had resided in the U.S. for the requisite period of time set forth in section 301(g) of the Act. The application was denied accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant states, "I do have the documents that I needed the first time." The applicant makes no other assertions, and she provides no other evidence or information on appeal.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in her appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
