ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Interim District Director, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant was born on February 15, 1984, in Laos. The applicant's mother and father were born in Laos, and they married in Laos in 1977. The applicant's mother and father became naturalized U.S. citizens on April 12, 2002, when the applicant was eighteen years old. The record reflects that the applicant was admitted into the United States as a refugee on September 17, 1993, and that she became a lawful permanent resident on August 25, 1995, when she was eleven years old. The applicant presently seeks a certificate of citizenship pursuant to section 320 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1431.

The director found the applicant had failed to establish that one of her parents was a naturalized U.S. citizen prior to the applicant's eighteenth birthday, as required by section 320 of the Act. The application was denied accordingly.

The applicant provides no statement or information on appeal.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in her appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
