Date: OCT 21 2005

IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Certificate of Citizenship under Sections 320 and 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1431 and 1433.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Harlingen, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director found that the applicant had failed to comply with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) requests for evidence of her father's physical presence in the United States prior to the applicant's birth and for her father's birth certificate. The applicant's Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship pursuant to sections 320 and 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1431 and 1433, was denied accordingly.

The applicant asserts on appeal that she has applied for a copy of her father's birth certificate, and that she has all of the information needed. The applicant makes no other assertions and she submits no new documents or evidence on appeal.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in her appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
