IN RE:

APPLICANT: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Certificate of Citizenship pursuant to section 320 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1431.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert P. Wiemann".

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Denver, Colorado. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director concluded the applicant had failed to establish that he was a U.S. lawful permanent resident, or that he was under the age of eighteen as required by section 320 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1431.<sup>1</sup> The application was denied accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant agrees that he is not a U.S. lawful permanent resident and that he is over the age of eighteen. The applicant then requests additional time to appeal the district director's decision in order to learn more about his adjustment of status options. The applicant makes no other assertions on appeal, and he submits no new information or evidence.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in his appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.

(a) A child born outside of the United States automatically becomes a citizen of the United States when all of the following conditions have been fulfilled:

- (1) At least one parent of the child is a citizen of the United States, whether by birth or naturalization.
- (2) The child is under the age of eighteen years.
- (3) The child is residing in the United States in the legal and physical custody of the citizen parent pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence.

(b) Subsection (a) shall apply to a child adopted by a United States citizen parent if the child satisfies the requirements applicable to adopted children under section 101(b)(1).
