DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Acting District Director, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native of Vietnam and naturalized citizen of the United States. He seeks to have his original Certificate of Naturalization, which was issued to him on October 27, 1982, corrected under section 338 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1449, to reflect a change of his date of birth from January 4, 1952, to November 7, 1947.

The acting district director reviewed the applicant's record and determined that applicant's request was not justifiable and denied the application accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant states that he has celebrated an incorrect birthday for almost half of his life and wishes to correct it.

Section 343 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1454, provides the statutory authority regarding the replacement of a Certificate of Naturalization only if the original was lost, mutilated, or destroyed, or if the applicant's name is changed after naturalization by order of the court or by marriage. The regulations at 8 C.F.R. 343a.1, regarding the procedure and grounds for obtaining a replacement Certificate of Naturalization, are quite clear and are not discretionary.

Section 338 of the Act provides the statutory authority relating to the contents of a Certificate of Naturalization.

8 C.F.R. 338.5 contains the specific regulations regarding the execution and issuance of Certificates of Naturalization and provides, in part:

(a) Whenever a Certificate of Naturalization has been delivered which does not conform to the facts shown on the application for naturalization, or a clerical error was made in preparing the certificate, an application for issuance of a corrected certificate, Form N-565, without fee, may be filed by the naturalized person.

(e) The correction will not be deemed to be justified where the naturalized person later alleges that the name or date of birth which the applicant stated to be his or her correct name or date of birth at the time of naturalization was not in fact his or her own name or date of birth at the time of naturalization.

Documents contained in the applicant's record as early as September 1975, reflect he indicated that his true date of birth was January 4, 1952. He continued to indicate under oath that his correct date of birth was January 4, 1952, on his Creation of Record of Lawful Permanent Resident in 1975, on his Application to File Petition for Naturalization in 1982, and on his Petition for Naturalization in 1982.

The information on the applicant's Certificate of Naturalization in the record conforms to the facts on his application for that document and the certificate does not contain any clerical errors. There are no provisions under sections 338 or 343 of the Act to justify any corrections on the applicant's Certificate of Naturalization as requested using the present Form N-565 application.

Although the applicant has provided documentation to support a request to have his date of birth amended on his Certificate of Naturalization, only the court has the authority to make this change. Therefore, the acting district director's decision will be affirmed, and the appeal will be dismissed.

This decision is without prejudice to the applicant's submitting his request to a U.S. Federal District Court with jurisdiction in this matter in accordance with regulations at 8 C.F.R. 334.16.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
