FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native of China and naturalized citizen of the United States. He seeks to have his original Certificate of Naturalization, which was issued to him on July 21, 1994, corrected under section 338 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1449, to reflect a change of his marital status from married to single. The applicant's original certificate of naturalization indicates that he is married and that information corresponds to the information he provided on his N-400 application filed in February 1994.

The director denied the application for failure of the applicant to submit the documentation requested by the Service.

On appeal, the applicant states that he was never asked to provide any documents. The applicant states that he was just told that they need to investigate the case.

8 C.F.R. 103.2(b)(13) provides that if all requested initial evidence is not submitted by the required date, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned and, accordingly, shall be denied. A denial due to abandonment may not be appealed, but an applicant or petitioner may file a motion to reopen under 8 C.F.R. 103.5.

There is no appeal of the director's decision in the present matter. If the applicant has additional evidence for the record, such documentation should be forwarded on a motion to reopen to the office having jurisdiction over the present application (the office which rendered the initial decision). Since there is no appeal of the decision in the present matter, the appeal will be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
