FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, New York, New York, denied the visa petition to classify the beneficiary as an immediate relative. The Associate Commissioner for Examinations dismissed a subsequent appeal. After the Associate Commissioner affirmed his decision on motion, the petitioner filed suit against the Immigration and Naturalization Service (the Service) in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. The Court granted the plaintiff's complaint and ordered the Service to approve the petition. Accordingly, the previous decisions of the Associate Commissioner and the District Director will be withdrawn. The petition will be approved.

The petitioner filed the Petition to Classify Orphan as an Immediate Relative (Form I-600) with the Director on April 1, 1998. The petitioner is a 55-year-old unmarried citizen of the United States. The beneficiary was born in Maniche, Haiti on August 20, 1982, and was 15 years old at the time of the petition's filing. The record reflects that the petitioner adopted the beneficiary on May 6, 1991, in Haiti.

On December 3, 2001, the United States District Court entered a written judgment in the matter of Dupont v. INS, CV-00-7282 (E.D.N.Y. December 3, 2001). The Court declared that the petitioner is entitled to have the beneficiary classified as her orphan adopted child within the meaning of section 101(b)(1)(F) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. The Court ordered the Service to approve the plaintiff's petition. Pursuant to the Court's judgment and order, the petition will be approved.

ORDER: The previous decisions of the Associate Commissioner, dated May 17 and November 9, 2000, are withdrawn. The decision of the District Director dated August 16, 1999 is withdrawn. The petition is approved.
