DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, Buffalo, New York, and the matter is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on April 1, 1999 the obligor posted a $5,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form 1-340) dated December 6, 1999 was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (the Service) for removal at 10:00 a.m. on January 5, 2000 at [REDACTED] Buffalo, NY 14202. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On January 28, 2000 the district director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the obligor never received notice that her son had to be present on January 5, 2000 and would have presented her son if she had been duly notified.

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge, as specified in the appearance notice, upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the said alien is actually accepted by the Service for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comma 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been substantial performance of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. 103.6(0) (3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. 103.6(e).1

8 C.F.R. 103.5a(a) (2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;
- (iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;
- (iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.

The bond (Form 1-352) provides in pertinent part that the obligor "agrees that any notice to him/her in connection with this bond may be accomplished by mail directed to him/her at the above address."

In this case, the Form 1-352 listed 305 West 150th Street, Apt. 78, New York, NY 10039 as the obligor's address.

Contained in the record is a certified mail receipt which indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien was sent to the obligor at 305 West 150th Street, Apt. 78, New York, NY 10039 on December 6, 1999. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien for removal on January 5, 2000. The notice was returned to the Service annotated unclaimed. The envelope containing the demand notice indicates that the U.S. Postal Service attempted delivery of the notice on two separate occasions (on December 10, 1999 and January 3, 2000). On both occasions the demand notice was rendered undeliverable. The obligor's address on counsel's Form G-28 is the same as her address on the notice to deliver. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the district director properly served notice on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. 103.5a(a)(2)(iv).

Furthermore, it is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to a Service officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by the Service for detention or removal.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will be produced when and where required by the Service for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for the Service to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited their or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O., 1950).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the district director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
