FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Assistant District Director, Miami, Florida, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on March 14, 2000, the obligor posted a $3,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated January 2, 2001, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (the Service) for removal at 9:00 a.m. on February 6, 2001, at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On March 20, 2001, the assistant district director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel states that a point of contact (POC) list was not provided as required by the [REDACTED] Settlement Agreement, entered into on June 22, 1995, by the Service and Far West Surety Insurance Company.

The parties to the Settlement Agreement did not intend for the sending of a question or complaint to a POC to replace the existing procedures for filing either a Motion for Reconsideration with the Office issuing a breach notice, or an appeal with the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). It was their intent, however, to create both an alternative, informal procedure for resolution of questions relating solely to the implementation of the Settlement Agreement, and a procedure through which sureties could obtain general information about bond practices in a particular District. Thus, if an obligor's concern about the validity of a breach is based entirely on the Settlement Agreement, it is entitled to seek resolution through the appropriate POC without paying any filing fee...If the surety either has filed, or subsequently files, either a Motion for Reconsideration, or an appeal with the AAO on the same issue as that presented to a POC, the POC shall have no obligation to respond to the surety, but may do so...Sureties may not use a question or complaint to a POC to challenge the decision in either a Motion for Reconsideration or an appeal to the AAO.

Counsel has failed to establish that the alleged unavailability of a POC was responsible for the obligor's failure to surrender the bonded alien upon demand.

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge, as specified in the appearance notice, upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the said alien is actually accepted by the Service for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comm. 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been "substantial performance" of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. 103.6(c)(3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. 103.6(e).

8 C.F.R. 103.5a(a)(2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;
- (iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;
- (iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.

The bond (Form I-352) provides in pertinent part that the obligor "agrees that any notice to him/her in connection with this bond may be accomplished by mail directed to him/her at the above address." In this case, the Form I-352 listed [REDACTED] as the obligor's address.

Contained in the record is a certified mail receipt which indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien was sent to the obligor at [REDACTED] on January 2, 2001. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien for removal on February 6, 2001. The receipt also indicates the obligor received notice to produce the bonded alien on January 16, 2001. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the assistant district director properly served notice on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. 103.5a(a)(2)(iv).

Furthermore, it is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to a Service officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by the Service for detention or removal.

Pursuant to the agreement between [REDACTED] and the Service, a properly completed questionnaire must be attached to all Form I-340's (Notices to Surrender) going to the obligor on a surety bond. Failure to attach the questionnaire would result in rescission of any breach related to that Form I-340 notice.

The present record contains evidence that a properly completed questionnaire was forwarded to the obligor with the notice to surrender.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will be produced when and where required by the Service for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for the Service to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited their or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O. 1950). See also, Matter of Allied Fidelity Insurance Co., 19 I&N 124 (Comm. 1984).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the assistant district director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
