Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, San Diego, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as moot.

The record indicates that on June 15, 2001, the obligor posted a $10,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated January 23, 2003, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (legacy INS), now Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), at 9:00 a.m. on February 24, 2003, at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On April 8, 2003, the district director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

The record contains a Verification of Departure dated March 6, 2003 from the United States Embassy in El Salvador, which indicates that the alien departed the United States on October 17, 2002 via Continental Airlines.

Further, the record reflects that the director issued a Form I-391 Notice-Immigration Bond Canceled on April 24, 2003. The bond was canceled prior to the appeal, which was dated by counsel on April 30, 2003 and filed on September 17, 2003. Therefore, there is no reason for an appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
