FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, Miami, Florida, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on July 7, 1998, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. An Order of the Immigration Judge dated June 29, 2000, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal. The alien failed to depart.

8 C.F.R. 240.26(c) (3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the district director.

Voluntary departure bonds are breached if the obligor fails to cause the alien to be produced or the alien fails to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer upon each and every written request until the alien voluntarily departs the United States in a timely manner and provides probative documentation of the departure or the alien is actually accepted by the Service for detention or removal.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in a voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for the Service to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the district director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
