Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, Chicago, Illinois, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on March 18, 1999, the obligor posted a $2,000.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. An Order of the Immigration Judge (IJ) dated March 11, 1999, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before May 11, 1999. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On August 27, 2002, the BIA affirmed the IJ's decision and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. The district director declared the bond breached on April 22, 2003.

On appeal, the obligor states that the bonded alien was delivered to ICE on March 4, 2003 in accordance with the I-166; therefore, ICE was in error in declaring the bond breached.

According to the terms of the voluntary departure bond, the bonded alien must depart the United States in a timely manner or the bond is forfeited. The bonded alien in this case was required to depart the United States on or before September 27, 2002.

8 C.F.R. § 1240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be canceled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the district director.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the district director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
