INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, Chicago, Illinois, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on September 15, 1999, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. An Order of the Immigration Judge (IJ) dated September 10, 1999, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before November 10, 1999. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On November 15, 2002, the BIA dismissed the appeal and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. The alien has failed to depart. The district director concluded the bond was breached as of February 4, 2003.

On appeal, the obligor asserts that the bonded alien has a request pending before the district office for an extension of his voluntary departure date.

It is noted that on March 5, 2003, the district director rejected the alien's request for an extension of voluntary departure as untimely as the request was not made prior to the expiration of the voluntary departure date.

8 C.F.R. § 3.2(f) states in part that execution of a decision shall proceed unless a stay of execution is specifically granted by the Board, the Immigration Judge, or an authorized officer of the ICE. The record does not reflect that a stay was granted.

8 C.F.R. § 240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the district director.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for the ICE to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the district director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
