Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on November 21, 2001, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for his voluntary departure. An order of the immigration judge (IJ) dated November 20, 2001, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before January 22, 2002. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On July 25, 2003, the BIA affirmed, without opinion, the IJ's decision and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. The alien filed a motion to reopen, which was denied by the BIA on October 30, 2003. On December 9, 2004, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

On appeal, the bonded alien asserts that he has a pending Application for Stay of Deportation before the Los Angeles District Office.

The record indicates that on August 15, 2003, the bonded alien filed an Application for Stay of Deportation. The record, however, does not reflect that the field office director granted a stay

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 1240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the field office director.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for Immigration and Customs Enforcement to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
