ON BEHALF OF OBLIGOR:

Mari Jensen

S Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on June 4, 2003, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for her voluntary departure. An order of the immigration judge (IJ) dated June 2, 2003, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before August 1, 2003. On September 25, 2003, the alien filed a motion to reopen and stay of removal before the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On October 1, 2003, the BIA rejected the alien's motion to reopen. On March 8, 2004, the alien appealed the IJ's decision to the BIA. On April 8, 2004, the alien's appeal was dismissed by the BIA. On June 22, 2004, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the alien is filing a second motion to reopen and stay of removal.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 1003.2(f) and § 1003.23(b)(1)(v) provide in part that filing a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider shall not stay the execution of any decision made in the case. Execution of such decision shall proceed unless a stay of execution is specifically granted by the BIA, the immigration judge, or an authorized officer of ICE. The record does not reflect that a stay of deportation was granted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 1240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the field office director.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
