Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The record indicates that on September 30, 2002, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for her voluntary departure. An order of the immigration judge (IJ) dated September 26, 2002, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before November 25, 2002. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On December 24, 2003, the BIA affirmed, without opinion, the IJ's decision and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. On June 30, 2004 the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

The appeal has been filed by someone other than the obligor. Only an affected party, a person or entity with legal standing, may file an appeal of an unfavorable decision. The individual is without standing in this proceeding. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a).

An immigration bond is a contract between Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and the obligor. The obligor or her attorney-in-fact is the proper party to appeal the ICE decision to breach the bond. See Matter of Insurance Company of North America, 17 I&N Dec. 251 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1978).

The regulations provide that an appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee ICE has accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
