IN RE:

Obligor:

Bonded Alien:

IMMIGRATION BOND:

Bond Conditioned for Voluntary Departure under § 240B of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1229c

ON BEHALF OF OBLIGOR: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The record indicates that on February 26, 2004, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. On February 23, 2004, an immigration judge (IJ) issued an order granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before April 23, 2004. On March 8, 2004, the bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On April 26, 2005, the BIA affirmed, without opinion the IJ's decision, and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. On June 3, 2005, the alien filed a petition for review before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit (Ninth Circuit). On August 18, 2005, the Ninth Circuit dismissed the appeal and indicated that the order shall act as and for the mandate of the court. On October 11, 2005, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached on May 26, 2005.

The appeal has been filed by the bonded alien. Only an affected party, a person or entity with legal standing may file an appeal of an unfavorable decision. The alien is without standing in this proceeding. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii)(B).

An immigration bond is a contract between Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and the obligor. The obligor or his attorney-in-fact is the proper party to appeal the ICE decision to breach the bond. See Matter of Insurance Company of North America, 17 I&N Dec. 251 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1978).

The regulations provide that an appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee ICE has accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(A)(I).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
