IN RE:

[REDACTED]

PETITION: Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility under Section 212(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(g)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

[REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Office Director, Jacksonville, Florida and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as moot.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of England who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(1)(A)(ii), as an alien ineligible for visas or admission due to health-related grounds. The applicant is the daughter of a U.S. citizen and seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(g) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(g), in order to reside with her mother in the United States.

The Field Office Director found that the applicant had failed to establish eligibility for a waiver of her section 212(a)(1)(A)(ii) ground of inadmissibility and denied the application accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated August 20, 2009.

United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records show that, subsequent to filing the instant application, the applicant became a United States citizen. Because the applicant is now a United States citizen, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot and the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
