Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Interim District Director, Los Angeles, California. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for having attempted to procure admission to the United States by fraud or willful misrepresentation. The applicant is the spouse of a naturalized citizen of the United States and seeks a waiver of inadmissibility in order to reside in the United States with her husband and children.

The interim district director concluded that the applicant had failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on a qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Excludability (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the Interim District Director, dated September 17, 2003.

On appeal, the applicant states that he did not receive a notice to submit evidence of extreme hardship. Attachment to Form I-290B, dated October 3, 2003. The record on appeal contains no evidence or documentation addressing extreme hardship imposed on the applicant's spouse as a result of the applicant's inadmissibility to the United States.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(v) (2002) states in pertinent part:

(v) Summary Dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for his appeal. The appeal will therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
