Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Acting Immigration Attaché, Manila, Philippines. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of the Philippines who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for seeking to procure a visa to the United States by fraud or willful misrepresentation. The applicant is the son of a lawful permanent resident and seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i), in order to reside in the United States with his father.

The acting immigration attaché concluded that the applicant had failed to establish that extreme hardship would be imposed on a qualifying relative and denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Excludability (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the Acting Immigration Attaché, dated May 14, 2004.

On appeal, the applicant states that, "We are appealing you to grant our request for our applications for waiver for an immigrant visa and allow us to join our father in the U.S. Hoping for your kind consideration." Form I-290B, dated June 3, 2004. No brief or evidence was submitted with the appeal, and the appeal does not dispute or otherwise address the grounds upon which the applicant's application was denied.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part that:

- (v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the acting immigration attaché's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
