Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, Los Angeles, California, denied the waiver application. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The record indicates that the district director issued the decision on September 8, 2004. It is noted that the district director properly gave notice to the applicant that she had 33 days to file the appeal. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal on October 26, 2004, or 48 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant did not receive the decision until “just a few days” before counsel executed the appeal, on October 20, 2004, because the mailman had delivered the decision to the wrong apartment and the applicant’s neighbors held onto the letter until the applicant overheard the neighbors discussing the mail that they had received. There is no evidence in the record of delayed issuance of the decision and the record indicates that the denial was sent to the applicant’s current address.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the district director, Los Angeles, California. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The district director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
