Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Chicago, Illinois. The matter is now before the AAO on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The matter will be returned to the district director for consideration as a motion to reopen.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record reflects that the district director issued the denial decision on March 1, 2006. It is noted that the district director properly gave notice to the petitioner that he had 30 (33) days to file the appeal. The record reflects that the appeal was received by the district director on May 19, 2006 - 79 days after the denial decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed. The district director erroneously annotated the appeal as timely filed and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

In the present matter, the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601 application) was denied because the applicant failed to establish his wife would suffer extreme hardship if he were denied admission into the United States. The applicant's untimely appeal contains a letter addressing the hardship that his wife would suffer if his Form I-601 application were denied, and the untimely appeal contains ten attachments, including affidavits from family members and friends, his wife's medical records, and his family's federal income tax return. The AAO finds that the untimely appeal thus meets the requirements of a motion to reopen. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the district director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the district director must consider the untimely appeal as a motion to reopen and render a new decision accordingly.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected. The matter is returned to the district director for consideration as a motion to reopen.
