IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii)

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Form I-212, Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal, was denied by the Interim District Director, Denver, Colorado, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who attempted to procure admission into the United States on March 6, 1998, by presenting an alien registration card that did not belong to him. The applicant was found inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182 (a)(6)(C)(i) for having attempted to procure admission into the United States by fraud and willful misrepresentation of a material fact. Consequently, on March 6, 1998, the applicant was expeditiously removed from the United States pursuant to section 235(b)(1) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1). The record reflects that the applicant reentered the United States on an unknown date after his removal without a lawful admission or parole and without permission to reapply for admission in violation of section 276 the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1326 (a felony). The applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(A)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(i). He seeks permission to reapply for admission into the United States under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii) in order to remain in the United States and reside with his U.S. citizen spouse.

The Interim District Director determined that section 241(a)(5) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(5) applies in this matter and the applicant is not eligible and may not apply for any relief. The Interim District Director then denied the application accordingly. See Interim District Director's Decision dated July 15, 2004.

On appeal the applicant states:

"I am asking and pleading to please reconsider my petition to remain in the United States of America after being deported.

I did wrong and I regret it and take responsibility for my actions. But I'm asking the US Citizen & Immigration Services Dept (USCIS) and the Department of Homeland Security for a second chance or reconsideration on my petition. I have jeopardized all that my family and I have worked so hard to achieve. My greatest regret is that my family is suffering the consequences of my actions.

The United States of America have given me the opportunity to understand what it takes to become a good citizen. A good citizen is someone who is hardworking & honest and strives to live up to the solid values of the US of America. Thank you."

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1) states in pertinent part:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal....

In the instant case the applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal and therefore it will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
