Date: JUL 17 2006

IN RE:

APPLICATION: Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii)

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, San Antonio, Texas, denied the application for permission to reapply for admission and it is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record reflects that, on July 2, 2004, the district director found that the applicant was inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“the Act”), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(ii), as an alien who made a false claim to U.S. citizenship and for whom no waiver of the grounds of inadmissibility is available. The district director denied the Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after Deportation or Removal (Form I-212) accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated July 2, 2004.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The record reflects that, on July 15, 2004, the applicant filed a Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Office (Form I-290B). On appeal, the applicant simply asserts, “I have 1980 to entry to get my resident alien. My father make the petition 1994 priority. I would like to get my resident. Please forgive me in the name of God for my lie. Please forgive me.” The applicant failed to identify on the Form I-290B, or through submission of a brief or evidence, any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact made by the district director. The applicant’s notice of appeal will therefore be dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed and the district director’s decision is affirmed.
